ORIGINAL REPORT

21.01.2018 – 3 am

The interviewed man was attacked by 4 police officers. The 4 of them beat him: kicking, punching and using truncheons on his back, his arms and his legs. As a consequence of this violence his left foot is broken. The officers were beating all the group, that included 2 minors. They took their water and spilled it out. The officers also showed their guns, threatening them that if they would ever come back they will get killed. The violence lasted about 30 minutes.

Then they were deported at the Bosnian border, on the way leading to Trebinje, and left nearby a forest. During the catchment, the violence and the deportation they were insulted by the officers.
