ORIGINAL REPORT

On the 3rd of October, 5 men (from Afghanistan/Pakistan) were deported from Croatia during the night. They entered Croatia approximately 15-20 km after the border. They were caught close to a road. While they were body-searched the police pushed them on their car, face against the vehicle. When one starts bleeding, they stopped. He got bruises on his face. He didn't ask for asylum, because he knows from experience that the police answers are always negatives (such as "fuck you", "kill yourself"). One other man got injured on his leg because he was pushed by the police on the car. Their mobiles were taken (3 mobiles). It was the 5th time his mobile was stolen this way. They were brought back to Serbia in 1 a closed car: 5 refugees at the back and 2 policemen at the front. They were dropped 25 km far away from Sid, telling them "Go taliban, don't come again". He noticed 3 different kind of police: one with a black uniform, one without police uniform and another one with just a T-shirt.
