ORIGINAL REPORT

"I was hidden in a train. In a border control crossing Croatian-Slovenian border Slovenian police caught me. They took me to a police station, took a picture of me and personal data. I asked for asylum but the police rejected it saying that I cannot seek an asylum on a border crossing. Afterwards I was pushed back to Croatia. In a border police station they took my picture and personal data. Again I asked for an asylum, but the police rejected it saying that Croatia accepts only families."
