ORIGINAL REPORT

We crossed the border from Sombor into Croatia by the river. We walked for 20 hours in Croatia and spent the night there. Once we crossed into Hungary, we walked for 7 – 8 hours. Nobody saw the police coming. We were spending a day in the jungle and then a hunter came and he saw us and he called the police. First they came 2 of them, and then maybe 6,7,8, they were in cars. They take us to the police station. There were 2 minors, who gave their DOB as under 18, but Hungarian police also don't take them as minors. They wrote false DOB.

They take our fingerprints, took photos, and one night we stay in the police station and then they hand us over to the Croatian police.

Their uniforms are same as every time. The uniforms are blue. They have some patches on the arms. Both are blue, Hungarian and Croatian.

When the Hungarian police met the Croatian police at the border, we were near immigration. (border crossing?)

The Croatian police met the Hungarian police with us on the border. They were 3 people with 3 vans. The Croatian police took us in combis to the police station and we were there around 5 hours. The Croatian police gave our phones and money back to us that the Hungarian police had taken. Croatian police also took our photos and did some paperwork and push us back.

Each person in the group was made to sign and given papers that signed them over to the responsibility of the Croatian border police.
