ORIGINAL REPORT

Reported by U. on the 29.08.2017, time of event 28.08.2017, 5 am, train from Zagreb – Ljubljana

A group of 6 Algerians, 3 of whom minors, were captured by Slovenian police in a train from Zagreb to Ljubljana at the Croatian-Slovenian border. They were kept in custody for eight hours without food or water. They were handed over to Croatian police- around 15- , who brought them to the Serbo-Croatian border. At the border, police officers took them one by one out of the van and sent them off. They kicked and punched them, using their hands, feet and sticks. They hurt also the minors. U. had injuries at the shin and shoulder. Others also hurt their heads.
