Around the 13th of September, he was caught with 2 friends nearby the Slovenian border. The Croatian police took their mobiles and broke them. They were approximately 7-8 police men who beat them. He asked for asylum, but the police replied they will not get it. They deported them back to Serbia in a van, 5 hours far walking from Sid. He had been deported several times, already 1 time from Slovenia and 2 times from Zagreb, several times from villages on the Croatian side such as Vinkovci.
