ORIGINAL REPORT

He spent some time in a coffee shop in the city center to get some internet connexion. He went out on the streets and was arrested soon after by 4/5 police officers, all men, not wearing any uniforms but undercover and driving a blue van. They asked for his documents, he declared he didn't have any and that he wanted to ask asylum in Croatia. Some officers answered the asylum process was "closed". He suffered no physical violence, but was deported back to Batrovci and asked to go out of the vehicle and to go back to Serbia. When he asked again about asylum some officers told him "next time you come you will get asylum". It was the 45th time he had been to "game".
