ORIGINAL REPORT

A. 16 y.o, Afghanistan

On the 4th of September, he was caught by the Croatian police with 12 others persons from Afghanistan, in the jungle nearby Visconsi. The Croatian police arrived in 3 police cars. His phone was broken by the police officers, his money stolen. All of them got beaten by the police in the jungle when they were found. He asked for asylum, none of the police officers replied. All of them were brought directly back to Serbia, by approximately 8-10 police officers. The van stopped close to the railway at the border between Croatia and Serbia. While the 12 refugees were going out of the van, the police used stun gun on them, on their bodies and necks, before letting them go.
