ORIGINAL REPORT

At 11am, the Moroccan man walked to a supermarket to buy water. He suspects the owner of the shop warned the police. When he walked back to his friends, that were hiding in an alley, the policemen came. They all ran away, but the Tunisian and the Moroccan men got caught. They got beaten up by 9-10 policemen with beating sticks in the village, mostly on their backs and arms as they tried to shield their heads. Their money and phones were taken from them. They were put in the jeeps, where the Moroccan man passed out. They were brought to Serbia, although they explicitly stated they came from Bosnia. The Moroccan guy recently had a big operation, but got beaten up anyway despite the health risk.
