

06/02/2018

"ONE OF THE PEOPLE SUSTAINED A SWOLLEN CALF AS A RESULT OF THE BEATING"

Date and time: February 6, 2018 02:00

Location: Tovarnik, Croatia

Coordinates: 45.147575 , 19.164551

Push-back from: Croatia

Push-back to: Serbia

Demographics: 3 person(s), age: unknown , from: Afghanistan

Minors involved? No

Violence used: beating (with batons/hands/other), exposure to air condition and extreme temperature during car ride

Police involved: Croatian police officers

Taken to a police station?: unknown

Was the intention to ask for asylum expressed?: Unknown

Reported by: No Name Kitchen

ORIGINAL REPORT

On February 6th. 2018, at 2am, 3 people from Afghanistan crossed to Croatia and were arrested by the police while walking on the side of a road. They were put into a van, where the cold air conditioning was activated for 3 hours.

They were deported at Tovarnik's railtracks, at the deportation point they were beaten. One of the people sustained a swollen calf as a result of the beating.