ORIGINAL REPORT

Reported by A. 28 y.o male from Libya

Time of event: 28.09.2017, 8 pm between Berkasovo (Serbia) and Babska (Croatia) 45.171974,19.253097

On the 28 th of September he was deported back to Serbia. They were 4 persons, who came from Serbia by walking and got caught around 7pm, about 3 km far from the Serbian-Croatian border. The police officers who caught them were 6 male between 25-40 years old, in Croatian border police uniforms, with one police van and 2 police cars 4WD. One police officer asked in English where they come from, and men replied Libya. Otherwise policemen talked Serbian language. Baggages and bodies were inspected, phone messages checked, charger cables cut off, one phone scratched. The cable of Ahmad's charger was cutted, and the screen of his phone got broken by the police officers.

He asked for asylum, but the police officers answered « no asylum ». Otherwise the police didn't ask any question about asylum. The police brought back near border in the same vehicles (2 cars 4WD and one van) with the 6 police officers, then they crossed the Serbian/Croatian border walking. Back in Serbia, the police officers asked the 4 men to get down on their knees in row. One electric shock to the first person at his neck and two shocks at the shoulder base plate of the following persons caused palsy of body parts for 1/2-2 minutes. One of the man managed to escape before being electrocuted. After the incident men walked back to Serbia.

Following here is the spot where the police electrocuted them : [see pictures]
