ORIGINAL REPORT

On September 13th, the interviewee was caught, along with 2 friends, near the Slovenian border. The Croatian police took their mobiles and broke them. They were approximately 7-8 police officers, who beat them. He asked for asylum, but the police replied that they would not get asylum. They were deported back to Serbia in a van, 5 hours walking distance from Sid. He had been deported several times, 1 time from Slovenia and 2 times from Zagreb, as well as several times from villages on the Croatian side of the border, such as Vinkovci.
