R. was caught in Croatia with 3 others persons. In Zagreb they had been to UNHCR office, and the police caught him there, right in front of the entrance door of the building (5-6 police officers in a van). They were brought at the police station. He stayed there during 6 hours, without nor food nor water. He was body-searched. The police took his mobile and never gave it back to him. Back in Serbia, they got beaten by the police : one by one, the police was taking them out of the van, closing the door, beating this one person for about 3-4 minutes (kicking, boxing, using sticks), asking him to go away, and starting the same process with the next one.
