4 men (including 2 minors) were walking through the jungle near the Serbian border. The police saw and stopped them. The men didn't show any intention to escape, and wanted to ask for asylum but the police rejected it.

The police accused one of the minor to be a smuggler : his phone was taken and broken in front of him, then he got it back. One officer kicked his nose (see Picture) with the leg while he was laying on the floor, he also got punched in his back.

His brother (who is also underaged) asked to the police why his brother was being beaten. As a answer the police started to beat him too: in the stomach and on his shoulder.

After the physical violence the police officers took from them 230 euros, 2 powerbanks and 2 mobiles. The police insulted them remarkably with bad words.
