ORIGINAL REPORT

Pakistani, 16 years, male

The man walked 3 days from Sid across the border to Croatian side, continued in container of small van to Croatian-Slovenian border and walked to Slovenian side. He got caught about 10 km before Slovenian-Italian border (45.864582,15.591242) by 6 Slovenian male police on Monday on 23th October morning about at 6 am. The man expressed the intention to seek for asylum, but the police answered him that he needs to ask in Croatia. After a while the police transported him by police van to Slovenian-Croatian border to Croatian side to the place where Croatian border police monitors the border. There 6-7 Croatian male police in black border police uniforms were waiting for him. The police checked his baggage and body and asked his personal details. He again expressed the intention to seek for asylum, but the police answered that he won't get it and complained that refugees go to Slovenia to get deported and try to apply asylum in Croatia. The man said he's sorry. After that, about at 7 am, two of the police committed the violence. Two of the police committed the violence: one slapped him with open hand to upper back and the other kicked him to lower back. The violence took a few minutes. The man had pain on his back the next days.

After that, 2 other deportees came by other police cars, and the three were transported by big police van (blue-black) driven by two police, to Zagreb. The man was led to Zagreb main police station, where he arrived about 2 pm, and two other migrants went to other police station. At the station the man expressed his intention to seek for asylum, and the officers took his registration. The police took his fingerprints and photos and the man was asked to write down his personal details. After that he the night in a cell and until next morning 24th October at 11, totally about 21 hours. After that 5 police transported him by big black police van to the Croatian-Serbian border on Croatian side near Batrovci, where they were later the same day.

The police ordered him to go back to Serbia. He asked for his registration papers, but they didn't hand them out. After the deportation the man walked back to Serbian side and returned to Sid.
