ORIGINAL REPORT

K., 25 y.o, Libya

He was deported from Croatia back to Serbia on the 4 th of September 2017. 68 km far from the Serbian/Croatian border, in Croatia, he got caught together with 2 others refugees by 3 Croatian police officers. In the moment when they were caught the policemen pointed with pistols at them. The police took K.'s clothes, threw it in the mud, stamped on them and gave them back dirty. The policemen also took/stole his shoes (nike airmax – expensive 130 euros). They also took away his painkiller-pills for headache.

Furthermore the 3 refugees had to sit on the ground, one policeman sat between two of them, took their heads under his axels and posed for photos. The 3 refugees got driven back to Serbia with 2 police cars and 1 police van by 5 policemen.
