ORIGINAL REPORT

They had been to cross the border from Serbia to Croatia, by walking 3 days long. They reached Vinkovci. The police caught them there, while they were hiding close to a train. They asked for asylum, one of them declared he was from Syria. First, the police officer answered him in a positive way, telling he will give asylum but he just had to wait for the boss to come. They were brought to the police station. When they asked again for asylum to whom was recognized as the boss, they didn't get any answer. They asked many times for asylum, without getting any answer about their case. They were put in a van, and brought nearby Tovarnik.
