One boy from Pakistan, 19 year old, was caught by Croatian police on the border crossing Bajakovo. He was hidden in a truck and was detected by the scanner during a border checking. He asked for asylum but the police rejected his request, saying there is no asylum, and that he had to go back to Serbia.

Police asked for his documents, passport, ID card, arguing that because he doesn't have documents he had to go back to Serbia. When he was talking to the police there were 3/4 other persons with him, also caught by the police. They didn't give him any paper and pushed him back to Serbia.
