ORIGINAL REPORT

T. and Z., Respectively 25 and 30 y.o, Pakistan

On the 9 th of September, they were deported back to Serbia, in the morning. The police caught them, in a village near Osijek, while they were walking. They were 4 police cars, with 8 police officers.

The police officers stopped and pushed them while they were walking, and asked them to go down in their knees before body-searching them with gloves (shoes and socks were searched aswell), shouting questions about their identity (name, mother's name, origin) and aim. They finally pushed them into a police car. T. declared the police treated them « like animals ».

The police took their SIM card and broke their mobiles, 200 euros were taken from Z.. Nor water nor food was provided to them, but T. and Z. did asked for it. When they asked for asylum, the officers replied : « If you come again, you go to jail ». They brought them back, by van, in the middle of nowhere, to the « jungle », 4 hours walking far from Sid.
