Croatia, small police station about 30 min car drive away from Serbian-Croatian border near Sid Serbia about this location : 45.172667,19.189460. Man crossed the border by walk and got caught by two policemen in uniforms near Sid Serbia (coordinates in the map) on 28th about at 9 pm, the police transported him by police car to the police station (he couldn't see where they went). His baggage, phone and money was confiscated, his name and nationality was asked for, a picture of him was taken, he was closed to handcuffs to a cell, where he was a while before the violence incident. After being a while in the cell all police came on the door, the he man asked when he gets free, the police answered "fuck you don't speak shut up". Two police got in and started to do violence. Man fell down to the floor and the police continued. After about 15 minutes the police let the man in the cell and went out. In total he was in the station about 2 hours. After the incident one police in uniform transported him by police car back to the border (he couldn't see where they left from) near Sid Serbia. The police told him smiling to go back to Serbia, loaded his gun, and said that if he catches the men once again in Croatia he will kill him with the gun. The police watched the man until he was far away on train rails on Serbian side
