ORIGINAL REPORT

The exact date of this incident from August 2017 is unknown.

I. was pushed-back to Serbia with 2 of his friends, among a group of 50 persons. He said it was impossible to ask for asylum in Zagreb, because the police arrested them in front of the UNHCR office in Zagreb. Back in Serbia, the border police beaten them : after opening the doors of the van, they were asking everyone to go out one by one, and were beating them one by one. 10 police officers at a time beating one person : kicking, using sticks. He declared that 2 police officers from Zagreb were present, and between 8-10 officers of the police border. The border police was the one beating them, the police from Zagreb didn't, but they witnessed everything.
