

27/04/2018

"THEY ASKED FOR ASYLUM BUT THE POLICE OFFICER REFUSED IT"

Date and time: April 27, 2018 21:00

Location: Near Lipovac, Croatia

Coordinates: 45.038606300000026 , 19.076185977343812

Push-back from: Croatia

Push-back to: Serbia

Demographics: 8 person(s), age: unknown , from: Afghanistan

Minors involved? Yes

Violence used: beating (with batons/hands/other), insulting, theft of personal belongings

Taken to a police station?: unknown

Was the intention to ask for asylum expressed?: Yes

Reported by: Rigardu

ORIGINAL REPORT

Eight Afghani people were caught by police in the forrest, 13km. from the border Serbian border, when they themselves yelled at the police (a police car that was near the forrest). The people observed one video camera placed in the top of a tree near the river. They remained seated but the police arrived and beat them in the back, knees, feet, and neck with batons. The Police officers also said, 'go, Picku materinu, fuck you'. They asked for asylum but the police officer refused it. The police ckecked their bags, took some phones and money (60 euros from one person). The group was pushed back to Batrovci at 11pm.