ORIGINAL REPORT

Two people from Algeria, one of them a minor, were caught just outside of Vinkovci (45.261520, 18.803283) by ten Croatian police men in blue uniforms. They were brought to the border near Tovarnik (45.147055, 19.163946) with a small police car and white van. When they were left at the border, the police took their shoes, bag with clothes and 30 Euros in cash. The refugees were hit with sticks and fists in the stomach and head (duration of violence: 2 minutes). S.'s head is still hurting a lot from the hitting, but he does not want to go to a doctor but rather try again. He said for him this has become a normality.
