ORIGINAL REPORT

One man from Algeria had reached Vukovar by walking, where 5 policemen caught him. They took him in the police car. He asked for asylum but they rejected his request. They took from him all the money he had (200 euros), his mobile and a bag with his personal things. They drove him to the border, close to Adasevci. At the deportation point the policemen made him lay on the ground and started to kick him. Then they pushed him back to Serbia.
