ORIGINAL REPORT

reported by 24 y.o, from Marocco.

He declares that everyday he's going to Croatia, between 30 and 70 kilometers after the border, Croatian police always deports him back to Serbia. He also declares he wants asylum in Zagreb but that the police never took this in consideration. Moreover he was deported back from Slovenia: in Rijeka the Slovenian police took his phone and beat him, before taking him to the Croatian's police who deported him back to Serbia (6 policemen).

On the 20th of October he had been to Croatia, about 30km after the border the police caught him in the street of Vinkovci, near the trainstation. At 9pm he was deported back to Serbia. He was with 6 others persons. There were 9 police officers, with « big car ». The police beat them and broke all their phones, their money was confiscated and the sim cards got broken as well. He was brought back to Serbia, and was told not to come back to Croatia.
