ORIGINAL REPORT

On 26th July 2017, around 11:00, 4 persons, all of them around 23 years old, were found at a scanner close to the Croatian-Serbian border. The exact position can't be described, because the men were hiding since 4 o'clock in a container and couldn't see where the vehicle went. When the police man recognized them, they went into the container and closed the door. The 4 officers, who wore blue uniforms and one of them a uniform with stars on his arm, beat the men "one by one" with sticks. The interviewee asked to go to the toilet but was not allowed to do so. The police men said "sorry" but didn't stop beating the men. After that the police men searched their bodies, took pictures of their faces and screamed: "If you come back I will send you to jail without food and water!" They were handed over to Serbian border police men, who brought them close to Šid in a white van which was very hot inside.

The interviewed person got injuries at his left shoulder, arm, finger and at his back.
