ORIGINAL REPORT

They were deported from Zagreb on the 16th of October. The police caught them in a « jungle » nearby Zagreb. They all asked for asylum, the police officers answered there was no asylum possible. After this, they were brought back to Serbia by car, and were dropped at the border at Tovarnik. Their phone got broken, and their money was taken. The whole group got beaten up. There have been more than 15 police officers in blue uniforms. One of the men interviewed said he was kicked all over his body, especially in the head. The 2 men interviewed precised it was the 15th time they were trying.
